

Search component

The Search component enables users to search through items such as contacts and installed apps. Results are grouped by type, with contacts first. Auto-complete returns results instantly, as user types.

(P1) User can access System search

*User can initiate a web search.
Opens default Browser and inputs string into default search engine.*