Draw on it, color it, take a picture of it, put it somewhere cool. Cut it up, fold it up, dress it up, flip it upside down, turn it inside out. Make it better, make it different, make it something we haven't thought of, but most importantly, make it your own.

then do it all over again with the web

Drumbeat Berlin: a hands-on session to keep the web open and make it awesome. Then we drink. Not just for techies. It is for anyone who loves the web.
